

A colorful poster for after-school tutoring at Forest Glen Middle. The background is a black chalkboard with a wooden frame. On the left, a girl with red hair and glasses sits on the floor reading a red book. On the right, a boy with dark skin and a yellow shirt is partially visible. In the center, an open book lies on the floor. To the right of the chalkboard, there are three books standing upright, one of which is labeled 'MOTIVATIONS'. A green speech bubble in the top left corner contains the school name. The main title 'AFTER SCHOOL TUTORING FOR 6TH GRADE' is written in large, bold letters on the chalkboard. Below the title, the days and programs are listed, followed by the arrival time. At the bottom, there is a call to action about limited spaces and contact information. Dashed white arrows point from the girl and the boy towards the central text on the chalkboard.
